

SECRET

THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

Office of the Director

11 April 1975

MEMORANDUM FOR:

SUBJECT : "The Implications of the Iran-Iraq Agreements"

Attached is OCI's draft of the paper entitled "The Implications of the Iran-Iraq Agreements." A meeting to discuss this paper is scheduled for 1000, Friday, 18 April, in Room 5G00, CIA Headquarters. Please notify [redacted] [redacted], of your attendance plans, by c.o.b. Thursday, 17 April.

[redacted]
National Intelligence Officer for the Middle East

Copies to:

[redacted]

SECRET

SECRET

Approved For Release 2005/04/13 : CIA-RDP79R01142A000500050005-4

THE IMPLICATIONS OF THE IRAN-IRAQ AGREEMENT

The Algiers Accord

1. The Shah of Iran and Iraqi strongman Saddam Husayn Tikriti signed an agreement on March 6 intended to resolve the differences which had produced border clashes during the past year. Both governments gained important advantages from the accord; Iraq's rebellious Kurds* were the big losers.

25X1

SECRET

Approved For Release 2005/04/13 : CIA-RDP79R01142A000500050005-4

25X1

Approved For Release 2005/04/13 : CIA-RDP79R01142A000500050005-4

Next 72 Page(s) In Document Exempt

Approved For Release 2005/04/13 : CIA-RDP79R01142A000500050005-4